THANKS & HELP

The efforts of so many members to gather and forward family vital statistics for the permanent records of Littell Families of America, and for use in Littell's Living Age are appreciated. Thanks for your contributions through the years.

Now, Help. Let other members know what is going on in your family and at the same time record the facts for future generations. Fifty years into the future your grand child will discover what you have written about him or her in their youth and say, "Gee, Grandma was really proud of me when I was a kid." Send your data to the association historian, Box 1019, Sebring, FL 33871

This issue contains a variety of articles as well as vital statistics. Examine your family and send us the news of your family, magazine or county history articles, and all that good stuff that should be recorded for posterity.

Let us know what members of your family are serving in the military services, perhaps a little more than just the bare facts, how about a story about their military service, past and present?

ANNUAL MEETING AND FAMILY REUNION

The 1990 annual meeting of Littell Families of America and the Littell family reunion was held Saturday, July 7th at the Littell Horse Farm near Aliquippa, Pennsylvania. Irene Littell, along with Bill and Gloria Littell were hosts to the family organization.

At least 11 states were represented among the more than 60 persons in attendance, including, New York, Illinois, Indiana, Arizona, New Mexico, Delaware, Ohio, Washington, Florida, New Hampshire, and Pennsylvania. Littell ancestral lines of James of Ireland; Job of New Jersey and Uniontown, Pennsylvania; Joseph of England; John-Anthony and John-Samuel of New Jersey; Benjamin of Vermont and Cincinnati, Ohio; William of West Virginia; and Jonah of New Jersey and North Carolina, were all represented.

A catered buffet was provided by our host and hostesses and a business meeting was held, followed by an afternoon of good fellowship and conversation.

Business Meeting

The business meeting was called to order by the association president, Fred M. Littell.

The following members were elected to the board of directors: Harold W. Littell, Gladys Littell Boyer, Jack Littell Nowling, Linda Littell, Lucile Littell Longo, flax Littell, and Joyce Littell Hamilton. Continuing members are Edmund Munger Littell, managing editor of Littells Living Age; Fred Moore Littell, who was promoted from president to chairman of the Board; William Adams Littell, Jr., treasurer.

Noble Kieth Littell asked to be relieved of his position of secretary, a post he has held since the inception of the formal organization 19 years ago. He did agree to accept the office of president and historian and Edmund Richard Littell, a board member for the past four years, agreed to assume the duties of secretary.

The ever-present question of a repository for the vast multitude of data accumulated on the various Littell lines of descent was discussed. It was proposed that a sum of money be accumulated, that a public library be approached to accept our gift and accomodate the Littell family data and keep it available for future researchers into the background of the Littell families. The fund was immediately generated by a $50.00 gift from David W. Littell and another $50.00 from Mr. & Mrs. Julian P. Winslow. It was decided to encourage further donations dedicated to this Library fund. Members may send their checks or money orders, in any amount, to our new secretary, Edmund R. Littell, c/o Strato-Vacuum, 4619 West Roscoe, Chicago, IL 60641. He is also ready to accept your payments of dues, $7.50 for one year or $35.00 for a five—year membership.

Harold and Marjorie Littell of Akron, Ohio agreed to host the 1991 annual meeting and reunion. It was decided to hold the meeting on Saturday, August 10, 1991 in Akron, Ohio. Mark calendar NOW! Additional information will be mailed to the membership in the spring of 1991, but should any member need to get in touch with Harold his address is 183 Fairway Drive, Akron, OH 44313.

It was an extremely enjoyable afternoon and those who were present just wish that more of you could have been present and it is hoped that can be present with us next year.

Amateur photographers took several photos of those present gathered on the hillside behind Irene's home at the horse farm. The picture below has come into our possession but rather than attempt to identify by row we will set forth the names of those who signed the register and let each of you pick out the individuals.

A FABULOUS GROUP, 1990, ALIQUIPPA, PA

Joseph - Anne BEDWELL, 7 Oct 1813, Wayne Co, Ind.
John - Barbary PORTER, 10 Sep 1814, Wayne Ca, Ind.

Could this last marriage possibly have any connection to the story set forth elsewhere in this issue about the family of Porter Littell of Ohio? Wayne County, Indiana is contiguous to the state of Ohio and Mt. Victory is less than 100 miles from Richmond the county seat of Wayne County. The spelling Little or Littell was frequently interchanged in early records.

The Dawes Mansion

[An excerpt from an article, "This Old Landmark" by William Recktenwald appearing in the Chicago Tribune Magazine, December 17, 1989. Used by permission, Contributed by Fred N. Littell. Charles Gates Dawes, vice president of the United States, 1925 - 1929 was a descendant of John Littell of Elizabeth, New Jersey. His Littell lineage is as follows: Mary Bemen Gates — Betsey Shipman — Joanna Bartlett — Betsey Corey — Betsey Littell — Absalom Littell, Sr — Anthony — John]

Charles Gates Dawes and Evanston were born at approximately the same time but not in the same place.

The lawyer, banker, diplomat, soldier and musician, who served as comptroller of the currency for President William McKinley and as vice president under Calvin Coolidge, was born Aug. 27, 1865, in Marietta, Ohio. Evanston, the Chicago suburb, was incorporated as a town on Dec. 29, 1863, and in time the two would become inexorably linked, after a fashion, because of a mansion.

Before his death in 1951, Dawes would achieve a record that would make a Renaissance man envious. Among his achievements: Serving as a brigadier general during World War I and as first director of the U.S. Bureau of the Budget. Being appointed to the Reparations Commission, where he developed the Dawes Plan for the economic recovery of Europe. Being awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1925 for the plan. Serving, from 1929 until 1932, as ambassador to Great Britain, then returning to the Chicago area as finance chairman of the 1933 Chicago World's Fair.

In addition, Dawes left a legacy that can be enjoyed today—the lakefront mansion at 225 Greenwood St., Evanston, which he purchased in 1909 for $75,000 (Which would be approximately $1 million in today's dollars). The 28—room structure was designed in 1894 by New York architect Henry Edwards—Ficken for Robert Sheppard, treasurer and business manager for Northwestern University, and it has become a National Historic Landmark.

The imposing orange—and—tan—brick residence, now maintained by the Evanston Historical Society, has been restored to the state it enjoyed when Dawes was vice president, and it is considered by architecture aficionados to be a classic example of that period's Chateau—esque style.

"Dawes was very interested in genealogy, so the portraits in the home pertain to his family," explains Etta Mae McElroy, a volunteer guide. "[One of them] is of William Dawes, his great—great grandfather, who rode with Paul Revere during the Revolutionary War."

. . . The home is also equipped with one of the first residential elevators installed by the Otis Elevator Co. It was an accommodation for Dawes' mother—in—law, who lived with the family, after she suffered a broken hip. . .

Many VIPs have visited or stayed at the mansion, including President Herbert Hoover and the King and Queen of Sweden. One bedroom, in the southwest corner of the 2d floor, is called the Pershing bedroom after the World War I general John J., who, McElroy says, was a frequent visitor. . .

Dawes' widow, Caro Blymyer Dawes, lived in the house until 1957, after which Northwestern University took ownership.

Despite its abundant charms, only about 5,000 people visited the mansion in 1988 and '89, says Barbara Buchbinder—Green, president of the historical society. . .

The Dawes House is open to the public from 1 to 5 p.m. every day except Wednesday, Sunday and holidays, when it is closed. . . Admission is $2 for adults, $4 for families, $1 for students, children and senior citizens, but there is no charge on Friday.

[NOTE — This family's interest in genealogy culminated in the commissioning of Mary Walton Ferris to delve extensively into the ancestry of Mary Beaman (Gates) Dawes. The results were published in two volumes, the second of which, Dawes—Gates Ancestral Lines privately printed in 1931, includes an exhaustive research of interest to we who are descendants of John Littell of Elizabeth, New Jersey. EMLEN T. LITTELL

From The Delaware Gazette, February 27, 1863, submitted by Jean Littell Winslow. The lengthy article is concerned with St. John's church in Brandywine village, built by Mr. Dupont in 1857.

"Mr. Emlen Trenchard Littell, of New York, is the architect, and kindly furnished the designs as his offering. His plans were very complete, and thoroughly based on real Church—architectural principles. Had there been more means, his talent could have had more chance to display itself. . "

(Emlen Trenchard - Squier - Stephen - Eliakim — Joseph - Samuel - John of NJ)

From "Maryland Calendar of Wills", published 1968, submitted by Walter N. Littell

Thomas Littell appears three times as witness to wills in Calvert County, Maryland. His wife, Assilla, is mentioned once. His line is unknown. Vol 5, pg 124; Vol 6, pg 194; Vol 7, pg 168, Dates of wills are 1722, 1730, 1735/6.

SOME EARLY GENERATIONS

In an effort to elicit more information, and to pre serve the family data which has been discovered for future generations we continue to set forth the origin of various Littell lines and a few generations thereafter.

The 1987 issue of Littell's Living Age contained the charts of Samuel Littell and Job Littell. In 1988 those early Littells in the lines of Anthony Littell, James Littell of Ireland, Jonah Littell, the two William Littells of West Virginia, Ephraim Littell, Amos Littell of New Jersey, James Brenan Littell, and the orphaned family of William Pinckney Littell of SC were published. What information we have on the descendants of John Littell of Mullingar, Ireland was set forth in 1989.

This issue will include some additional early generations charts.

PORTER LITTELL OF OHIO

Porter Littell lived near Mt. Victory in Hardin county, Ohio. We know of only one child, David Porter Littell who was born May 15, 1849 and was killed when he was returning from Mt. Victory on foot where he had taken hogs to market. He was found along side the road on the following day, he was 33 years of age. Mrs. Martha Temple Littell of Richwood, Ohio contributed much of the information that follows.

 - 4. Thelma LITTELL (1902—1980) sp-William McWADE

The 1900 census for Marion county, Ohio sheds only a little light on this family:
 LITTELL, Abe, b, Nov 1868, Ohio (He was a boarder in the home of another family)
 LITTELL, Jesse, b. Oct 1880, Ohio (A “domestic” in the household of Henry Harrell) [Undoubtedly Jesse, son of David Porter Littell whose birth is given on his grave stone as 1879)
 LITTELL, Howard, no birthdate given (A “domestic” in the household of Isaac Guthery) [Probably Howard Lester, the other son of David Porter Littell]

In the household of William H. Bonham, and listed as his granddaughters, were:
 LITTELL, Audrey c., b. Dec 1897, and LITTELL, Sarah B., b. Nov 1895.

Then there was the family of Leroy Littell listed as follows:
 LITTELL, Leroy, b. Aug 1872, Ohio
 LITTELL, Alice (wife), b. Dec 1877, Ohio
 LITTELL, Anna May (dau), b. Apr 1896, Ohio

There are others with the given name of Porter in some of our records, Porter Allen Littell of Denver, Colorado, (1900—1976) was an early member of Littell Families of America. His widow continued the membership through 1986 and we have not heard of her recently. The given name “Porter” is understandable as Porter Allen’s mother was Effie May (Porter) Littell. In the civil War records one Pvt Porter Littell was taken prisoner by the 15th Illinois calvary at Helena, Arkansas in February 1864. He was a confederate soldier in the command of General Walker, This would probably be the son of Philander, grandson of William, and great—grandson of Job Littell of Uniontown, PA,

Another Littell/Porter connection is found in The Descendants of John Witman of Weymouth published in 1889. A daughter of William H. Littell married Reuben Porter in 1846. Perhaps a brother was encouraged to name a son after his brother-in-law?

Could we encourage a reader to search the 1850 through 1880 census records, probably Ohio, for Porter?

THOMAS B. LITTELL

Census records are unreliable, but frequently they are the best source available. It would seem that Thomas B. Littell was born about 1826 in New York. He died at Villa Ridge, Illinois. The middle initial of Thomas Littell, like many other aspects of the details of this family is in question, it is probably a "B", but it could be an "R". With relative certainty it can be said this Thomas was in Campbell County, Kentucky for the 1850 census where his age is given as 24 and his birthplace as New York.

A. C. Latell is the manner in which the discharge from the 144th regiment of Illinois Infantry reads for this son of Thomas Littell, his birthplace is listed as Shreveport and at least one additional document states he was born in Louisiana. Other document entries support Kentucky as his birthplace. The 1870 census for Pulaski County, Illinois, Villa Ridge precinct includes:

Latelle, Adam, age 20 or 26, b. LA, works at Mill.

Latelle, Hannah, 30, b. KY

Latelle, Emaline, 6, b. LA

Latelle, William, 4, b. IL

Latelle, Thomas, 2, b. IL

For 1880, same county and precinct the name is listed as Littell, A.C., 34, farmer, b. Kenty father born in MO and Mother in IL. Wife, Hannah, 36, b. Kenty; father, IL; mother, OH. Children as follows:

Littell, Adam, 9, son, b. IL

Littell, Anna, 7, dau, b. IL

Littell, Harriet, 5, dau, b. IL

Littell, John C., 4, son, b. IL

Littell, Ella E., 1, dau, b. IL

Chenier, Emma, 16, stepdau, b. IL

Chenier, William, 12, stepson, b. IL

There is room for additional clarification in this line, but Mrs. Erb has now established that the "C" stood for "Congress", not Clyde as previously believed.

JOHN LITTELL

Littell's Living Age has not previously published a five-generation chart of John Littell, primarily because we have so little on this line. The late William Thaw Littell was our only member who was a descendant of this John Littell. He told us that his maternal ancestry felt that their social status was much above that of the Littells and just didn't discuss the origin of his father. This would make an excellent research topic for an enterprising individual who would like to contribute to a future issue.

The total data we have on John Littell is that he was born in 1779 and died January 11, 1847. His wife's given name was probably Barbara and she was born about 1796 and died August 8, 1866. We know of only the one child, David.

AARON LITTLE/LITLE/LYTLE/LITTELL

The spelling of our surname is to be found in many forms and has been the case for several generations. Some variants were perhaps by design, others simple mistakes as an official spelled the name phonetically as one of our ancestors pronounced it. If there is a tie between the subject of this article and our other New Jersey Littells it has escaped detection but the geographical origin and subsequent migrations would suggest such a possibility. The earliest known written record of Aaron spelled his surname Litle

Aaron was born February 4, 1800 in New Jersey or Pennsylvania, married, in Wayne County, Ohio, a young lady who was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, and died October 8, 1872 in Valparaiso, Indiana. Aaron was a versatile individual as his occupations ranged from blacksmith, merchant, justice of the peace, farmer, to sawmill owner.

There are several Littells with the Biblical given name of Aaron in the records of early New Jersey. If this Aaron was named for his father there is one who is of the correct age to father a child in 1800, and about whom we know very little, Aaron Littell, son of Nathan iel, grandson of Samuel, and great grandson of John Littell was born about 1766. He married Sarah Dickerson about 1795. They are buried in the First Presbyterian Churchyard, Elizabeth, NJ with this inscription:

Aaron Littell, died 12/15/1831, age 65 years.

Sarah, wife of Aaron Littell, died 12/10/1831, age 60 years.

Dennis and Charla Littell

[The following article appeared in The Heritage of Wilkes County, volume II, 1990 published by the Wilkes County Genealogical Society, Box 1629, North Wilkesboro, NC. Contributed by N.K.L.]

Dennis Dwight Littell was born September 20, 1947 in Burlington, North Carolina, the son of Emil Overton and Fannie Myrtle (Terrell) Littell. Both parents were teachers, first in Caswell and later in Alamance County. After his 1965 graduation from Walter Williams High School in Burlington, Dennis attended Appalachian State University where he was awarded a bachelor of science degree in 1969. He had a dual major, business and education.

Dennis and Charla Elizabeth Baer were married August 26, 1967 at the First Baptist Church in Burlington, NC. Charla was born February 17, 1947 in Ashland, Kentucky the daughter of Charles Elwood and Minta Pauline (Ferrell) Baer. The Baer family moved from Kentucky to North Carolina in 1960. She was also a '65 graduate of Walter Williams High School after which she attended Carson Newman and Elon Colleges. Following her marriage to Dennis she transferred to Appalachian State where she earned a bachelor of science degree in elementary education. In 1932 Charla commenced her studies at South eastern Baptist Theological Seminary, she was ordained in May 1985 at the church in which she and Dennis were married. Charla then attended the University of North Carolina where she was certified in clinic pastoral education. She was recently promoted to associate director of hospital chaplaincy at Durham County Hospital.

After graduation Dennis taught in the Alamance County schools for three years before accepting a position in business. In 1973 Dennis became personnel manager for Burlington Industries, he was transferred to Galax, Virginia in 1975. He remained in the textile industry at Galax and Lincolnton, where he was director of industrial relations for High Shoals Mills, Inc., before returning to Burlington to become plant manager for Rental Towel and Uniform Service. Dennis became executive director of Rex National Association in 1989. This is an association of industrial launderers. As executive director Dennis does extensive traveling to speak on matters relative to the industry, including marketing and training liaison between members and manufacturers, before association members from coast to coast, including Hawaii.

Dennis and Charla are parents of two daughters, both born in Burlington. Stacey Elizabeth Littell was born June 13, 1970 and is presently a freshman at the University of North Carolina, Greensboro. Kristina Paige Littell was born August 4, 1972 and is a 1990 senior at Woodrow Williams High School.

North Carolina has long been the home of the maternal lines of Dennis Littell. His grandparents, William W. and Fannie B. (Underwood) Terrell were born, lived, and died in the Tar Heel state as did several generations before. His paternal lines include several who were transitory North Carolinians in generations past. John Hood was born in Delaware in 1761 and relocated in North Carolina following that conflict. John's great granddaughter, Lina Hood, was Dennis' paternal grandmother. Others in this line were the McHargues of Iredell County and the wife of ancestor James Arnold was Elizabeth Baker, born in North Carolina. The Littell ancestors of Wilkes County include the Chapmans, Marleys, Johnsons, Brays, Barnes, and Teagues most of whom are mentioned in some detail elsewhere in this publication. [See The John Johnson family and also John Chapman]

Dennis' father, Emil, returned the family to the state during World War II as a Staff Sergeant in the army at Fort Bragg. His mother, Fannie, was then working as educational director at the Baptist Church in Fayette ville. They met, fell in love, and were married after the end of the war. Emil was a graduate of Central Normal College and earned a graduate degree at Butler University. Fannie attended Campbell College and majored in religious education at Southern Seminary in Louisville. Dennis has spent his life back in the state of his ancestors except for the brief period when he was employed in Galax, Virginia.

Eldon and Goldah Jackson

[The following article appeared in Ripley County, Indiana History 1818—1988, published by Ripley County Historical, Society, 1989, Osgood, Indiana. Contributed by N.K.L.]

Eldon Jackson was born at Tanglewood on September 5, 1901. He was the son of Samuel and Lillian Jackson, also of Tanglewood. On March 19, 1922 he was married to Goldah Littell of Holton. Goldah was born September 6, 1903 to Everett and Adora O'Brien Littell. Her parents were both natives of Ripley County, near Holton. This union was blessed with nine children. However, the Heavenly Father called Larry and Janet home early in life. Other children are three daughters, Mrs. Winifred Smith, of New Castle; Mrs. Beverly McNeelan, of Whiteland; and Mrs. Beth Taylor of Ft. Myers, Florida. There are four living sons, Lloyd of Columbus; Franklin and Ethan of Indianapolis; and Rollin of Greenwood.

The family was raised on a one-hundred acre farm in Ripley County known as the Old O'Brien Farm at Clapboard Corner, located at the crossing of State Road 50 and the Michigan Road. The farm is still owned by Mrs. Jackson and has been in her family for over two hundred years. The children were reared in a loving Christian hone yet strict discipline was maintained. No doubt in today's world it would come under the heading of "child abuse." Nonetheless each of the children have held to the traditions of their childhood in raising their own families and their offspring have made them proud.

Eldon went home on April 2, 1979. He drove a school bus for 34 years, and sold seed corn all over the county. He was a Deacon at Dabney Baptist church where the entire family attended regularly. He also maintained a dairy herd and hog operation on the home farm.

Goldah lives near her sons on Southport Road in Indianapolis. Christmas time brings 60 members of the Jackson family together for food and fellowship. There are 24 grandchildren and 20 great—grandchildren. One grandson is planning to be a minister of the gospel, one is a stockbroker, and one maintains sophisticated computer systems on our country's nuclear submarines. The grand-children are geographically located south to Florida, west to Scottsdale, Arizona, and east to London, England.

DOUGLAS KENT LITTELL FAMILY

(During the past few years there has been a proliferation of county or area history publications that have also set forth individual histories or genealogical sketches very much like the Blanchard and other works in the 1880s. Three such sketches are set forth in this issue of Littell's Living Age, one from North Carolina on the Dennis Littell family and the Jackson article from Ripley Co., Indiana. The following is from the Lawrence County History (Indiana) published by the Lawrence County Historical society, 1990.)

Douglas Kent Littell is currently residing in the Orlando, Florida area though his ancestral roots are deeply entrenched in Lawrence County, Indiana for it was here, on September 2, 1836, that Hiram Blake married Susannah Johnson. Hiram was born while his parents, John Blake, Jr. and the former Sarah Enocks, were yet living in Hardin County, Kentucky, he was moved to Spice Valley as a babe in arms. Susannah was a daughter of John Johnson and Sarah Barnes.

John Johnson acquired over 1,000 acres in Spice Valley Township between 1836 and the time of his death, June 28, 1844. He is buried on one of the Johnson farms across US Highway 50 from where Ed's Ghost Town and Gift shop previously stood.

Other Lawrence County roots include George and Elizabeth (Marley) Chapman, though both were born in North Carolina they lived, farmed, died, and are buried in the Huron area, their son, Uriah Chapman, was born January 1, 1824 in Lawrence County and married Hiram and Susannah's daughter, Fanny Blake, in 1855. Oran Clarence Littell, grandfather of Douglas, was the son of William Isaac and Sarah (Chapman) Littell and grandson of Uriah and Fanny.

A John Johnson of the eighteenth century is difficult to trace because of the extremely common name. The search for the ancestry of his wife has been more productive. Sarah Barnes was born in 1788 in Burke County, North Carolina the daughter of Jehu and Luranna (Teague) Barnes. Luranna was the daughter of the Reverend Edward and Luranna (Swearingen) Teague and granddaughter of William and Isabella (Loftin) Teague and Thomas and Lydia (Riley) Swearingen. Sarah Barnes died 29 years following her husband's death and is buried at Huron.

Douglas, son of Judge Noble K. and Dorothy Ann (Hyatt) Littell, was born January 6, 1950, during the period in which his father was teaching school in Wayne County, Indiana. Douglas cut his teeth while his father was on the Indiana University campus attending law school. Douglas also attended ID after his graduation from Martinsville High School. He married Sharon Kay (Harrington) Ferguson, daughter of Herbert A. and Uldine Elizabeth (Mitchell) Harrington. Douglas and Sharon were the parents of April Dawn Littell, born April 2, 1974 in St. Petersburg, and Chad Douglas Noble Littell, born May 6, 1977 in Avon Park, Florida.

Douglas subsequently married the former Peggy Jane Greer, a native of South Pittsburg, Tennessee and the mother of Ina Lourene (Mrs. Robert) Clark, Leslie Jane (Mrs. James) Houater, Kimberly Ann (Mrs. Jerry Dale) Bobbitt, Edward Arthur, Wesley Louis, and William Thomas Akers. Peggy is the daughter of Donald Leon and Helen Elizabeth (Tally) Greet. Douglas is a most proud grand father to twins born to Jerry and Kim on August 8, 1989 at Lake Mary, Florida. One is named Dale Benjamin and the other Douglas Donald Bobbitt. Douglas and Peggy own and operated Boomers, a cocktail lounge in eastern Orlando near the campus of the University of Central Florida.

Pastor of the Second Church

[The following article appeared in the “Supplement to the United Presbyterian, May 23, 1895. Contributed by John C. McMichael, PhD, Tampa, FL]

The exact time when the Second church was organized is uncertain. The records of presbytery are silent on this point, but no mention is made of elders representing the congregation till 1816, and makes it probable that the organization was effected about that time.

. . .Some of the most able ministers in the city have occupied its pulpit, and members from it have formed the nucleus of many another congregation. . . (Dr. Littell became pastor October 26, 1886 and was serving in that capacity on the date of the article)

Dr. Littell is a preacher of great originality. He does his own thinking in his own way, and expresses himself with force and quaintness. It require an attentive listener to appreciate the richness of his sermons. He is known for his conservatism, and some of his brethren think he stands so straight that he leans slightly backward.

THE BAGLES FARM

(The following article appeared In the Oakdale Times, May 13, 1908. It was contributed by John C. McMichael, PhD, of Tampa, FL)

The Bagles Farm, on which is located the northwestern portion of the borough, was first owned by James Littell, being conveyed to him by the Commonwealth by patent dated December 10, 1800, and recorded in patent book volume 43, page 496, the entire tract containing 255 acres and 77 perches. William Littell, attorney for James Littell, sold to Hugh Eagles, April 17, 1817, 156 acres of the above tract which is land now included within the borough limits, the balance having been sold to other parties.

(From Lois H. Allen, 515 Locust St., Lockport, NY)

" . . . I want you to know that attending the Littell reunion in July was the high lite of my summer. Up until then I had missed out on all the nice affairs and feared I would also miss that but I was brave. We arrived home from Florida in mid April and was just about to get back in the swing of things when I broke my hip May 3rd so I missed many activities. . ."

Dr. Franklin H. Littell

From The Press of Atlantic City, December 18, 1989, submitted by Dorothy A. Littell and Robert E. Littell to Walter W. Littell. The article was entitled, Littell to guide Stockton's Holocaust center. By Richard Murray, Staff Writer.

With his long white hair and cowboy hat, and a wry smile that seems to play steadily at his lips, Franklin Hamlin Littell looks like he ought to be spinning yarns, not recounting horrors.

Just the same, this is the man many others in his field regard as "the father of Holocaust education in America."

He is also the man Stockton State College has tapped to orchestrate the genesis of the college's Holocaust Resource Center, which is expected to open sometime next year.

For more than 30 years, Littell has traveled the world teaching and lecturing about the Holocaust, authoring dozens of books on the subject and earning an international reputation.

He was appointed by the White House to the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Council, and is the only Christian to be appointed to the International Council of Yad Vashem, Israel's Holocaust Museum.

"It's like we've been wandering in the wilderness for the past 40 years," said Littell. "It was a while before survivors would talk, before liberators would talk."

Besides his style, Littell's scholarly role may seem incongruous on other, more fundamental grounds. He's not Jewish.

But this Methodist minister—emeritus professor of religion at Temple University—hastens to point out that Christians have long been at the forefront of trying to understand the lessons of the Holocaust. . .

During his tenure in the endowed chair, Littell will teach a twice-weekly course on the Holocaust and help organize contacts and reference materials for the center, college officials said.

PATRICK TOBIN LITTELL, EAGLE SCOUT

Dear Judge Littell:

At the outset, please note my new address [2203 Stanmore, Houston, Texas 77—19].

Second, with my apology for the delay, I have a report of some possible use to Littell's Living Age. Enclosed is a photograph of me, my wife, and my son, Patrick Tobin Littell, taken after his Eagle Scout Court of Honor held on September 19, 1988.

Patrick reached the rank of Eagle Scout in Troop 125 at the age of 13 years, 6 months, much earlier than is normally the case. At the time he was serving as Senior Patrol Leader of the troop and had been elected by its members to the Order of the Arrow, the national honor association for campers. In June, 1988 he was one of the youngest Scouts to complete a 70—mile backpacking trip through the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico.

The Court of Honor was also attended by my sister (Mina Jane Littell Graham), my aunt (Mrs. Anne Kane - sister of George Shaum Littell, Sr. my two cousins, Tirzah (Mrs. Herbert Chapman) and Jo Anne (Mrs. Dale Kirkland), and my mother (Fayrene Tatum Littell).

Very truly yours,
/s/George S. Littell

HARDIN HETH LITTELL, II

H. H. Littell is Hardin Heth Littell, II a son of Clarence Hardin and Viola Helen (Smith) Littell and grandson of Hardin Heth Littell a pioneer in street rail way systems in Louisville, Kentucky and Buffalo, New York.

Hardin earned his B.A. degree from Yale University in 1932. He was captain of Yales Squash—Racquets Team though he does not brag about their prowess during that season, and for good reason as indicated by the scores set forth.

Following Yale, Hardin held several executive positions, including treasurer, John E. Smiths Sons Co.; account executive, Addison Advertising Agency; assistant vice president, Bell Aircraft Corporation; vice president, Muzak Corporation of Buffalo; and vice president, Buffalo Industrial Bank. He was also an officer in the Marine Corps. His civic and community service involvement has been extensive and includes director positions in Buffalo Chapter of American Red Cross, Buffalo United Fund, and Littell Families of America.

Hardin and Jane Goodyear, daughter of Charles Water--house and Grace Cary (Rumsey) Goodyear in Buffalo, New York were married shortly following his graduation from Yale. They are parents of Hardin Heth, III, Carlton Smith, Grace R., Steven C., and Lisa Littell and grand parents to thirteen. They live in Tucson, Arizona in an active retirement.

MISSIONARY LITTELLS

A brief account of the missionary activities of Matthew and Peggy Littell, and his parents, Charles Myron and Florence Littell, in the Philippine Islands appeared in the 1988 Living Age.

The LITTELL-A-GRAM following was forwarded to the editor by William Adams Littell, Jr. and gives some news about a new location for Matt and Peggy. The forwarding agent for Matt and Peggy is Sandee Lawson 3818 Whitman Ave., North Seattle, WA 98113

Charles and Florence Littell remain in Davoa City. The letter of page 33 was written on their behalf and tells of the establishment of PALMHAVEN, a home for unwanted, homeless, and needy Filipino children. The photograph mentioned, which we will be unable to include in this issue, is of a cute little filipino girl and her young mother. The forwarding agent for Charles and Florence is Ambassadors For Christ Philippine Evangelism, Inc., Box 176, Mooresville, IN 46158.

CAGAYAN DE ORO CITY
9000 PHILIPPINES

August — September

Dear Friends,

Greetings from our new home In the North of Mindanao. We moved to Cagayan de Oro City on the 30th of August and are still enjoying that state of topsy—turvey as we sort and rearrange everything. We spent about two weeks during the first part of August In Cagayan de Oro looking for a house we could rent. There was not a lot of selection but we finally found a nice house in a subdivision called Apovel. The boys like the yard and the fish pond in the front of the house. Aaron is already talking about what kind of fish we will put in the fish pond. There is very little vehicular traffic in Apovel so the boys are able to ride their bikes and explore without us being worried all the time.

The new work of Ambassadors for Christ hero in Cagayan do Ore is to establish new churches in the Northern part of Mindanao and to train their leaders to establish new churches. The island of Mindanao now has over 200 churches with less than 10% of that number in the Northern part of Mindanao. There are many large cities where we have no Churches of Christ. Please pray with us as go work to establish new churches.

Peggy has been asked to help the church on Camigan island with their children's program as well as helping the church in Cagayan de Oro with their Christian Education program. She will also be Home Schooling the boys. Please especially pray for her as she embarks on this new avenue of work.

We do thank all of you who continue to pray for the work here. Besides the prayer requests mentioned above we would ask you to pray for the foliowing

1. That we will have wisdom in starting the work in Cagayan.
2. That adequate funding will come in to allow us to develop the work in Northern Mindanao.
3. Stability of the Philippines and the continued safety of the Christian workers here.
4. Praise to God for providing adequate housing.

We do enjoy getting mail so personal letters to us should now be mailed to our new mailing address above. We do not have a telephone but messages can be gotten to us by calling Rhea and Larry IMonteith. Their telephone number is 26—90.

Again we close with thanksgiving for your concern and support of the work in the Philippines.

In Christ, Matt and Peggy

Dear Friends,

LITTLE FILIPINO BABIES AND CHILDREN ARE DYING BECAUSE OF LACK OF CARE!

Praise God, there is now hope because Ambassadors for Christ has started PALMHAVEN, a home for unwanted, homeless, and needy children. Already a number of LITTLE ONES WHO WOULD HAVE DIED now have a hope of living.

You may not know me, but I have been a board member of AFC for a number of years and have made four trips to Mindanao. I am "Head Wrangler" of PALMHAVEN Christian Children's Ranch in Montana, caring for needy young people from all across America. In March I helped dedicate PALMHAVEN, and saw FRUITFUL RESULTS OF THIS LOVING MINISTRY. Here are some:

1. A nameless baby girl about two days old and weighing 2.2 lbs. was found in the trash, BLIND AND ALMOST DEAD. Today, "Angelita" is a beautiful, growing, seeing child of 1 year being adopted into a Christian family.
2. Michael, a nine month old baby, weighed six pounds. His mother feared he would die so she gave him up to Littells. He had pneumonia, TB, amoebic dysentery, and measles. ANY OF THESE WOULD HAVE KILLED HIM.
3. Christopher was BORN TO A DAVAO PROSTITUTE by Caesarian section so he would not be exposed to genital herpes. Authorities begged PALMHAVEN to take him. He's doing very well!
4. The enclosed picture (picture not included. See editors note at top of page) shows a young mother and her two year old child, one of six. Her husband is in jail and she must glean rice in the fields for food. She brought this child and a younger one to the "Haven" until she can care for them again. This little one had two kinds of intestinal worms and was THE SADDEST CHILD I'VE EVER SEEN, but is now responding.

The biggest problem and challenge right now is that the urgent need demands that ANOTHER UNIT BE BUILT AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. $10,000 will make this a reality. If 100 people who receive this letter will send at least $100, this need will be met. Perhaps someone, class, or church can send the entire amount. Then we can be planning on units 3 and 4.

LIVES OF LITTLE CHILDREN HANG IN THE BALANCE. Will you help, today?

Bob

Robert C Larsson, a co-worker with you in caring for Christ 's children.

WEDDING

Bradley David Shields-Karen Ruth Buddenbaum

From the Daily Reporter, Martinsville, Indiana, September 13, 1990 (contributed by N.K.L.)

Following their honeymoon in Orlando, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Bradley U. Shields are living at 1000 Old Brick Road, Apt. 224, Auburn, IN. They were married on June 30, 1990, in the Calvary Lutheran Church in Southport.

The bride, the former Karen R. Buddenbaum, is the daughter of Marilyn and Harry Buddenbaum of Indianapolis. Parents of the bridegroom are Bill and Jacki Shields of Martinsville.

Brad & Karen Shields

The Rev. Robert K. Meir of Calvary Lutheran officiated at the double-ring candlelight afternoon ceremony. The couple exchanged personally written vows in front of the alter decorated with candelabra and baskets of Starburst lilies, ivory roses and carnations. Ivory satin bows and hurricane candles graced the pews. Kristen Buddenbaum was her sister's maid of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Juli Shields, sister of the bridegroom; Marika Klem and Jeem Smith, all of Indianapolis; Beth Scott of Columbus and Trina Toney, cousin of the bridegroom, of Pittsboro. Serving as flower girls were Stacy Knutson, cousin of the bride, and Mandi Carlton, cousin of the bridegroom.

Damon Taylor of Indianapolis was best man. Serving as groomsmen were the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Mark Hammitt, and Jeff Poehls of Martinsville, Ken Buddenbaum, brother of the bride, of Cincinnati; Chris McCoy of North Vernon and Trent Toney of Pittsboro, cousin of the bridegroom. Robbie Hammitt, the bridegroom's nephew, was ring bearer. Mark Snyder of Columbus was acolyte.

The bride is a graduate of Perry Meridian High School and has attended Bail State University and Indiana University—Purdue University Indianapolis. She will continue her education at IUPUI Fort Wayne, while assisting with several girls' sports in the DeKalb County School system. Her husband graduated in 1985 from Martinsville High School and from Indiana University in 1990. He was a member of the Indiana University football team and Alpha Beta honorary academic fraternity. He is a teacher, assistant varsity football and track coach and head junior varsity football coach at DeKalb High School.

AN OBITUARY FROM THE PAST

William Littell

From Argus of Western America Frankfort, Kentucky, Wednesday, September 29, 1824, Volume XVII, Number 32, Page 3.

DIED, in this town, on Sunday morning last, in the 56th year of his age, WILLIAM LITTELL, Esq. after an illness of near two months. He was severely attacked with the prevailing Epidemic about the second week in August, but had nearly recovered from its effects in the course of a few days, when the death of a favorite son, which took place about this time, so affected his feelings as to produce a fatal relapse. The depression of his spirits rendered abortive every effort to restore him to his former health, and he sunk into the arms of death, a victim to his own sensibility and parental fondness. Although somewhat eccentric in his manners and opinions, Mr. Littell was a man of great goodness of heart and excelled by few in the extent and variety of his information. His edition of the Statute Laws of this State rescued our code from such a mass of confusion, as perhaps had no parallel in any other country, which pretended to be governed by its own will; and while this work, (which had been undertaken by him without the smallest share of public patronage) evinced great labour and much legal learning, it furnished an aid to the Bench, the Bar, and the Legislative body, for which the author was never suitably regarded Mr. L. was Reporter to the Court of Appeals, and had published five Volumes of their Reports. In connection with another gentleman, he published also the Digest of the Statutes, about two years ago, a work which received the patronage of the legislature.

Mr. Littell's talents were not confined to the Law. He wrote on various subjects with great facility. In the early part of his life he had studied Physic and Divinity; but abandoned both for the law. Possessed of much imagination, he had frequently indulged it in poetical and prose compositions, serious, comic and sentimental—in some of which he was particularly happy. His Epistles to the people of Kentucky, (in the Scriptural style,) published in 1806, will be long remembered and admired for their genuine humour, and faithful delineation of character. He was a native of New Jersey, but removed with his father, when very young, to the back part of the state of Pennsylvania. Here he remained, it is believed, until he emigrated to Kentucky about the year 1801.

[William Littell was born August 5, 1772 the son of Job & Elizabeth (Robinson) Littell. There is no doubt that he was a descendant of John Littell of Elizabeth, New Jersey but that connection has not been established as of this writing. N.K.L.]
